The screenshot shows the CEFA my-eLEARNING platform interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the following items: my-eLEARNING, Home, How to, About, Programmes, Contact us, and Help. The 'Help' button is circled in red. Below the navigation bar is the CEFA logo (Continuing Education for Africa). On the left side, there are two menu sections: 'NAVIGATION' with links for Home, My home, My profile, and My courses; and 'ADMINISTRATION' with a link for My profile settings. The main content area features a large image of four diverse students smiling around a book. Below the image, the text reads: 'Welcome to the CEFA my-eLEARNING platform', 'Welcome to the Continuing Education For Africa (CEFA) eLearning Platform. My eLearning is a friendly learning platform which brings training to your doorstep.', and 'my-eLEARNING was designed to enable learners to study from their homes or any place else in the world.' At the bottom, there is a section titled 'Available courses' with a red arrow pointing to the 'Community Development NQF Level 5' course. The course description states: 'Community Development is multidisciplinary in nature. It plays an integral part in promoting social inclusion and coherence for communities by empowering them to find sustainable solutions to their challenges. People working with and in communities require relevant knowledge and skills to operate effectively; hence the need for the qualification. This qualification is designed to equip the learner with the tools to address the challenges of communities in a holistic and integrative manner. It provides an alternative route to the traditional approach of completing a Bachelors Degree as an initial qualification by offering a certificate as a first qualification which then leads to Bachelor Degree study. This is particularly useful to those who do not obtain admission to Bachelor Degree study with their National Senior Certificate and for those who cannot afford to study full time for four years without being employed.' The assessors listed are Juliet Carter, Diana Kitshoff, and Annelie Terblanche.
